SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CENTERS

There are more than 900 SBDCs. They are not veteran focused, but many counselors are former bankers and can help business owners create a successful loan application, determine the kind of financing they need and the best approach. In 2009 SBDC counselors were able to secure $3.4 billion in credit despite tough economic conditions, compared with $3.6 billion in 2008. Find a local SBDC by calling the Small Business Answer Desk at 1-800-8-ASK-SBA.

FRANCHISING TERMS

DISCOVERY DAY – A discovery day is an event set up by the franchise company for potential franchisees. This gives the interested buyer of the franchise the chance to meet face to face with the franchisor. This event usually takes place at the franchisor's main headquarters or in some cases, at an actual franchised location that is usually in the same town/city of the franchisor's main office. Some discovery days are very structured and will have up to 20 candidates in attendance while others will be on a one to one basis.

FTC – The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) is an independent agency of the United States government that regulates franchising. The Federal Trade Commission puts rules in place for franchisors to follow.

RESOURCE ROLODEX

SCORE

Formerly the Service Corps of Retirement Executives, this organization is filled with business pros who have been through the trenches and now offer their knowledge free of charge. Today the organization is simply known as SCORE since active business owners are now part of the more than 12,000 volunteer counselors who make up the organization. About half of them are veterans. All counseling services are free, though some of the 300 chapters may charge for workshops. For details, visit www.score.org

FRANCHISING TERMS

FRANCHISE BROKER – A franchise broker or franchise consultant is an individual who acts as an intermediary between the franchisor and an individual interested in buying a franchise. In most cases a franchise broker is not directly employed by the franchisor and represents many different franchises. There is no fee incurred by the individual interested in buying a franchise. The franchise brokers are paid a commission by the franchisor.

FRANCHISE FEE – The franchise fee is an up-front (one-time) cost that a new franchisee pays to the franchisor. In most cases the franchise fee will cover the costs for training, support and site selection.

MASTER FRANCHISE – Master franchising allows people or corporations to purchase the rights to sub-franchise within a certain territory. This allows the master franchisee the opportunity to grow a decent business in a fairly short timeframe. Not every franchisor offers master franchising opportunities. Franchisors that do use this system of usually grow very rapidly.

"One piece of advice I have for those getting into business is to be driven. Business ownership is the hardest and most rewarding thing you'll do. You have to really want it. However, your military discipline and focus will help immeasurably."

FRANCHISING TERMS

SINGLE UNIT FRANCHISE – Buying a single unit franchise is the most likely place a new vetpreneur would begin. In this type of franchise, the franchisee would only be responsible for running one unit. However he or she would be extremely involved with all of the daily operations of the business. The franchisee typically has a particular territory that is covered by the unit. Usually the franchisor assigns a number of miles to be covered by each unit in operation. If the business is home-based, there may be four or five zip codes included.

MULTI-UNIT FRANCHISE – Multi-unit franchising creates the opportunity for a franchisee to open more than one unit. In this case, multiple units are sometimes sold at a reduced rate per unit. In this type of operation, the franchisee partakes less in the day-to-day operations of the unit. Instead, the multi-unit franchisee manages all the locations at a higher level. Usually the franchisee will hire managers and staff for each location to perform the daily operations.
